Eric Evans Lecture

Thursday, January 12, 2006

Eric Evans is an award-winning magician who was twice nominated for Parlor Magician of the Year at the Magic Castle. He has toured the world performing street magic, while also performing in a wide variety of venues from restaurants to theaters including Universal Studios in Los Angeles, California. But most notably Eric is co-author of the highly acclaimed book The Secret Art of Magic. (<http://www.secretartofmagic.com>) Eric's new lecture illustrates strategies from the book and is perfect for anyone desiring solid, bullet-proof effects. Predominately stand-up, the tricks cover a wide range of skill levels from easy to challenging.

THE SECRET ART OF MAGIC

is comprised of two sections, essentially two "books:"

"Street Magic & The Art of War" and
"The Secret Art of Dispersion."

Separate, yet inextricably linked by the paradigm of ancient war strategy.

"Street Magic & The Art of War" uses strategies from Sun Tzu's The Art of War to teach the intricacies of street magic—from trick selection, to the pitch, to stopping people, to handling hecklers, to building a crowd, to collecting the hat. Its most profound lessons, however, deal with controlling yourself and your audience—the most critical thing for all performers.
